

Pull out the eyes, rip out the tummy.

Wrap it in cloth and you've got a mummy.

Put it in jars and do the Mummy Rag.

Cover with salt to keep it fresh.

Pack it with cloth and put on a mask.

Put in a coffin and do the Mummy Rag.

You're there forever.

But you've been clever.

You've taken everything you will need for life thereafter.

Pack up your gold.

Fix up some food.

When you are judged, just hope you've been good.

Plenty of time to do the Mummy Rag.

Plenty of time to do the Mummy Rag.

Mummy!
